

Often the pertinent query to the traveler arises of how do we get there and back, what do we use? At Jade Sea Journeys, we utilize all means of land, water and air transport to get you through the safari. Depending on the aspirations, safari itinerary and other prominent factors such as season, we are very flexible. Often on our adventure expeditions we use all three means for you to have the ultimate experience.